

The 6 P's: A framework for starting any new project

Follow our useful framework for helping young employees to start any new project and make it a success. Find full details of how to use the framework, here.

Purpose	Why are you doing this? (Top level)
	Why (1)
	Why (2)
	Why (3)
Plan	Project Overview
	How realistic is the plan (does it match the realities of your working week?)
	Project micro-steps

	Map out all obstacles likely to face (and how to resolve these)
	Estimated time and effort level needed for microsteps Is the project worth the estimated time/effort, or could an alternative project be used?
Potential	Do you think this project will be a success? Can you go into the project with the belief you can achieve what you're setting out to?
People	The champions
	The accountant(s)
	The mentor(s)
Progress	Micro-step activity plan mapped out Set up of micro-step progress tool for weekly progress diary
Practise	3 x habits to form to help the project succeed
